turmoil has surrounded your class for two years as you have witnessed decisions regarding possible coordination with another school. for some, this has been upsetting; for others, the experience has been beneficial as you have tried to evaluate various aspects of the proposal.

turmoil is a part of life whether due to willfulness, conflicting emotions, or selfish ambitions. each of you will need to cope with these problems on many occasions in your life. hopefully, the difficulties with which you have been confronted thus far will strengthen you for future trials.

good luck to each of you!

jaroslava vojtech, french

she picks up people for chewing gum, and she always says horrors or sadness when she is upset. one of the most outstanding characteristics of madame vojtech is that she sincerely cares. she has always been willing to give her time to help any student. for fourteen years she has been interested in helping students in latin and french. this year we would like to show our appreciation by dedicating this shield to madame vojtech

i sent a message to the fish:
i told them 'this is what i wish.'

the little fishes of the sea,
they sent an answer back to me.
the little fishes answer was,
'we cannot do it, sir, because--'

i sent to them again to say,
'it will be better to obey.'

the fishes answered with a grin,
'why, what a temper you are in!'

a wise old owl sat on an oak, the more he saw the less he spoke; the less he spoke the more he heard; why aren't we like that wise old bird?

an exchange student added a new face to the senior class this year. hilary tarr actually graduated last year from school in england but through the exchange program she is repeating her senior year abroad, here. many of us have found it hard to believe that anyone would want another year of high school, for any reason.

many of us have had the pleasure of having hilary to our homes during vacations. by introducing her to some of our customs, such as carving a halloween pumpkin, or even just a ride on the ferry she has allowed us to enjoy them more.

this summer she will return to england. in the fall she will begin her first year at the university of wales. we hope that she will return to see us or rather that we may go to england and see her again until then we say thank you to her and...chieerio...

'twas brillig, and the slithy toves did gyre and gimble in the wabe;
all mimsy were the borogroves,
and the mome raths outgrabe.

"beware the jabberwock, my son!
the jaws that bite, the claws tht catch!
beware the jubjub bird, and shun
the frumious bandersnatch!"

he took his vorpal sword in hand:
long time the manxome foe he sought--
so rested he by the tumtum tree,
and stood awhile in thought.

and as in uffish thought he stood,
the jabberwock, with eyes of flame,
came whiffling through the tulgey wood,
and burbled as it came!

one, two! one, two! and through and through the vorpal blade went snicker-snack!
he left it dead, and with its head
he went galumphing back.

"and hast thou slain the jabberwock?
come to my arms my beamish boy!
o frabjous day! callooh callay!
he chortled in his joy.

the student council began the year with many glorified goals for the general well-being of the student body. one of our first problems was trying to quell the daily study hall riots; thus came the merit system. also on our fun-filled agenda was the annual creation of the christmas carnival ice cream booth. student council joined the student body in celebrating the arrivals and departures of exchange students with lots of food (of which we are all quite obviously fond). another item was a student council contribution to the school-- at this writing still in the controversial process of decision (radicals 15, conservatives 2). we were also kept busy with ideas, appraisals and criticisms thrown at us from students and faculty alike. however, we managed to keep our well-renowned cool and reacted to all problems in our usual spectacular fashion.

house council flowed smoothly through the year without faltering. the guardian angels made sure that all went well, herding all to church on sunday, posting guard at the bathroom doors, and counting noses on fingers at house association meetings. the council saw to it that all aspects of corridor life were up to par (more or less). there were even a few fleeting moments to pause and refresh with cake and coke what with game nights, un-birthday parties and innumerable other activities.

in keeping with tradition, we, the staff of the 1970 shield, failed to make our first deadline, and we maintained our flawless record throughout the year.

as editor, i would particularly like to thank teri for her ability to procrastinate; barb and lynne for never being around when there's a crisis; wendy, anne, and melinda for their overwhelming literary ability; lissa for her tipograficall erers; di, teri, debbie, and pam for their masterpieces of artistic creativity; mr. gimmel for making us all look so beautiful; and most of all, miss bosley for putting up with us.

child of the pure unclouded brow
and dreaming eyes of wonder!
though time be fleet, and i and thou
are half a life asunder, thy loving smile will surely hail
the love-gift of a fairy-tale.

i have not seen thy sunny face,
nor heard thy silver laughter;
no thought of me shall find a place in thy young life's hereafter-- enough that now thou wilt not fail to listen to my fairy-tale.

a tale begun in other days,
when summer suns were glowing--
a simple chime, that served to time the rhythm of our rowing-- who echoes live in memory yet, though envious years would say, "forget."

for everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven. there is a time to live, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to harvest;--a time to weep, and a time to laugh;--a time to mourn, a time to rejoice;-- a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;-- a time to speak, and a time for solitude;-- a time to love, and a time for memories.
--- i have seen everything beautiful in its time.

'to talk of many things;
of shoes---and ships---and sealing-wax--
of cabbages-- and kings-- and why the sea is boiling hot-- and whether pigs have wings.'

"progress is our most important product..."

it's a shame that a race so broadly conceived should end with most lives
so narrowly confined.

why should we waste
childhood on the children,
poverty on the poor,
antiquity on the antiquarians,
or woods on the woodsman?

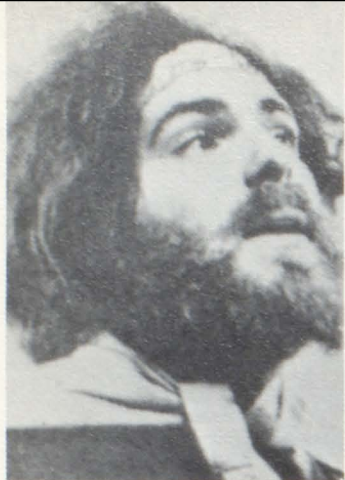

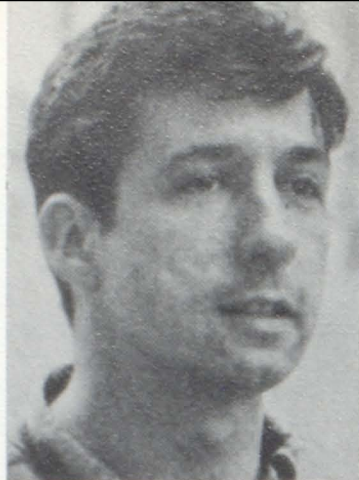

... now me, i play for fortune,
and those velvet curtain calls.
i've got a black limosine
and two gentlemen
escorting me to the halls,
and i play if you have the money,
or if you're a friend to me....

a boat, beneath a sunny sky
lingering onward dreamily
in an evening of july--- children three that nestle near,

eager eye and willing ear,
pleased a simple tale to hear---

long has faded that sunny sky:
echoes fade and memories die:
autumn frosts have slain july.

still she haunts me, phantomwise,
alice moving under skies
never seen by waking eyes.

children yet, the tale to hear,
eager eye and willing ear,
lovingly shall nestle near.

in a wonderland they lie,
dreaming as the days go by,
dreaming as the summers die:

ever drifting down the stream--- lingering in the golden gleam--- life, what is it but a dream?
